Your Highness:

Our letter of June 4 was sent to your office in the hope of enlisting your cooperation in our international music survey. The value of such a project cannot be overestimated since, in these times, the exchange of cultural understanding is of such great importance to modern man.

If our letter has not reached you we will be happy to send another outlining the details. If you have received our letter and find that such information is not easily accessible to you, we would appreciate greatly your forwarding it to the proper agency or individual so that the requested information may be obtained and sent to us.

The response to our questionnaire has been extremely favourable which increases our desire to include your country in our survey. Although our publication date is fast approaching we will gladly hold open our schedule to accommodate your reply.

Enclosed is a list of the various lands of the world to be covered in our new edition.

We extend our warmest thanks for your cooperation and kind attention to our project.

Most respectfully yours,

WHO IS WHO IN MUSIC, INT.
