Gentlemen:

May I ask that you forward this letter to any child, young person, or adult interested in any of the following:

- * Corresponding via steamer mail
- * Trading small trinkets
- * Giving foreign postage stamps in exchange for small gifts
- * Corresponding on a definite subject of interest
- * Trading picture postcards
- * Collecting American magazines or comic books
- * Trading coins or shells
- * Corresponding on all phases of photography
- * An interest in foreign lands, peoples, their customs, modes of transportation
- * Trading menus for meals cooked 'out-of-doors' with American Girl Scouts (Girl Guides).
- * Exchanging news of Scout activities with American Scouts
- * Interested in having their own letterhead - which they will design on tracing paper, and forward to me. Arrangements can be made for low cost or we can trade.
- * Do you have any person interested in geography, maps, guides to foreign countries.
- * Receiving an international news letter.

My interests are sincere. I have always enjoyed corresponding with people. There are many things of interest in the States. May I ask that if you do not have anyone interested, to put this letter on a bulletin board.

I would prefer to receive steamer mail. I will write immediately to any person who is interested.

Of interest to you would be the news that I have been a musician, interested in all phases of music, play the piano. If you have a person interested in obtaining music, we may correspond on the subject.

As to myself, I am 36 years old, work in New York City right near Grand Central Terminal. I am very much interested in the U.N., Girl and Boy Scouts, international friendship, stamp collecting and trading.

Though I prefer to correspond in English, I will accept correspondence in other languages.

Please be assured that I am not selling any articles, or services, but through the means of this letter, learning more about the people and places of the world.

Cordially yours,

Joseph Christy
